

mimi Loves to mimiC

Mommy throws some garbage in the trash can.

Mimi reads lots of books, just like Mommy.

Mimi throws some toys in the trash can, just like Mommy.

Mimi can put her feet up, just like Daddy.

Mommy puts some lipstick on.

She can play the trumpet, too-Toot Toot Toot

Mimi puts some lipstick on, just like Mommy.

Mimi goes to Grandpa and Grandma's house.

Mommy likes to read.

Grandma gives Nini a bath.

Mimi washes her toys too, just like Grandma.

Grandma has made some yummy soup for Mimi and Grandpa.

Mimi makes soup too, and gives it to Nini.

Grandpa goes "sluurrrp!" when he eats his soup.

Mimi goes "sluurrrp!" too, just like Grandpa.

Grandma jumps and goes "Shhhh!" to Grandpa. "Mimi's slurping just like you now!"

But just as Grandma finishes her sentence, Mimi starts to go "Shhhh!" again and again.

Mommy comes to pick up Mimi. She kisses Mimi.

Mimi kisses Mommy, too.

When Grandpa sees this, he kisses Grandma.

And Grandma gives Grandpa a warm kiss, too— just like Mimi!
